

Hastings to tackle fraud with CRIF

6 January, 2011

Hastings selects CRIF to boost fraud prevention at underwriting stage

Hastings Insurance Services has selected CRIF Decision Solutions to support its counter fraud strategy .

James Fairhurst, director of information systems and services at Hastings Direct, said: "We are committed to providing our customers with the best service possible and this includes protecting them for the costs of fraud."

"What CRIF has helped us deliver will benefit both our customers and our bottom line."

CRIF associate director Roger Walsh said: "There is an immense appetite across the industry to strengthen fraud prevention strategies at policy application.

"We are delighted to welcome Hastings into our growing community of insurance clients"