

MEMBER NEWS

CRIF in Strategic Partnership with Russian Standard Credit Bureau

Russian Standard Credit Bureau has chosen CRIF as a strategic partner to develop its own brand new credit information system. CRIF has developed a state-of-the-art technological platform for Russian Standard Credit Bureau to manage and centralize credit information. The system has been customized according to the needs of Russian Standard Credit Bureau and implemented as a high quality solution bringing together CRIF best practices and international know-how.

Russian Standard Credit Bureau has set itself a new strategic goal for the next 2-3 years: to become one the most competitive and fast growing companies on the Russian market. The Credit Bureau is going to deliver new value added services to the credit history market. Source: CRIF Press Release